JUDGMENT

The petitioner has approached this Court feeling aggrieved by the steps taken by the second respondent to draw the electricity line through his property to give power connection to the third respondent. He has a grievance that his version was not allowed to be present at the time of the hearing held on 14-3-07 by the first respondent. He also has a grievance that the second respondent is biased against him.

2. The line, if any, will be drawn only after getting orders from the first respondent. The first respondent shall issue a copy of the order to the petitioner as soon as the same is passed on the application of the second respondent.

The Writ Petition is disposed of as above.
